Press Release

Eiffage strengthens its position in Europe with its acquisition of the Swiss Yerly group

Eiffage, through its Eiffage Énergie subsidiary, has taken over the Yerly group, based in the Swiss canton of Fribourg, specialising in thermal engineering (ventilation, heating and solar power systems) and plumbing.

Founded in 1999, Yerly has nearly 180 employees and achieved €38 million in revenues in 2015.

This acquisition – in line with the Eiffage Group's international development policy – is its first in Switzerland. Yerly will enable the Group to strengthen its position in the Swiss market, enhancing its expertise to provide customers with a multi-technical offering over the whole country.

About Eiffage

Eiffage is one of Europe's leading construction and concessions companies. The Group's activities are organised on the basis of the following business lines: construction, property development, civil engineering, metal, roads, energy and concessions. Thanks to the experience of more than 64,000 employees, Eiffage generated revenues of €13.9 billion in 2015, including 19% outside France.

About Eiffage Énergie

Eiffage Énergie designs, builds and operates grid, energy and information systems, while respecting people and protecting the environment. As a true energy services contractor with expertise in all aspects of the electrical and thermal engineering and telecommunications. Eiffage Énergie offers comprehensive, multi-technical services – from design to operation and maintenance – that can be customised and graduated according to the scale and type of projects. Eiffage Énergie provides innovative solutions for local authorities and the service and industrial sectors, in France and worldwide. Backed by the experience of 25,000 employees, Eiffage Énergie €3.6 billion in revenues in 2015.
