Press release

Cécile Cambier appointed Eiffage's concessions Director

Cécile Cambier has been appointed concessions Director and is therefore appointed to the Executive Committee of Eiffage. She succeeds Marc Legrand, who died in January 2021 after a long illness.

Graduated from the ESITC Cachan engineering school, Cécile Cambier began her career in 2003 as a works engineer at Eiffage Construction, before becoming a project manager at Eiffage Concessions in 2004, responsible for developing PPP and concessions projects. In 2008, she joined Vinci Concessions as a regional director, responsible for developing PPP and concessions projects in France, Europe and around the world.

Since 2014, she has been CEO of Société Marseillaise du Tunnel Prado Carénage (SMTPC) and Chairwoman of Prado Sud, both of which are jointly owned by Eiffage and Vinci.

About Eiffage

Eiffage is one of Europe's leading construction and concessions companies. The Group's activities are organised around the following business lines: construction, real estate and urban development, civil engineering, metal, roads, energy and concessions. Thanks to the experience of more than 72,000 employees, Eiffage generated revenue of €16.3 billion in 2020, of which 26.5% was outside France.
